

A seated frog with a tilted smile

Dark: new lines. Gray: earlier lines. Pale dashes: temporary guides to erase.

STEP 1

Draw the broad cheeks, two raised eye bumps and curved forehead. Leave the neck opening below the head.

STEP 2

Lightly mark the body oval and ground line, then draw its two outer edges.

STEP 3

Draw the outer arm edge, three rounded fingers and inner arm edge.

STEP 4

Repeat the short arm on the other side, keeping the hands apart.

Continue with the next steps on the following page.

STEP 5

Draw the arch between the arms and close it with a shallow bottom curve.

STEP 6

Round the left thigh, add the inward fold and finish its three broad back toes.

STEP 7

Repeat the thigh, fold and back toes on the right. Erase the body and ground guides.

STEP 8

Place a complete round rim in each raised eye bump, following the head's tilt.

STEP 9

Darken the pupils around their white highlights and add two tiny nostrils.

STEP 10

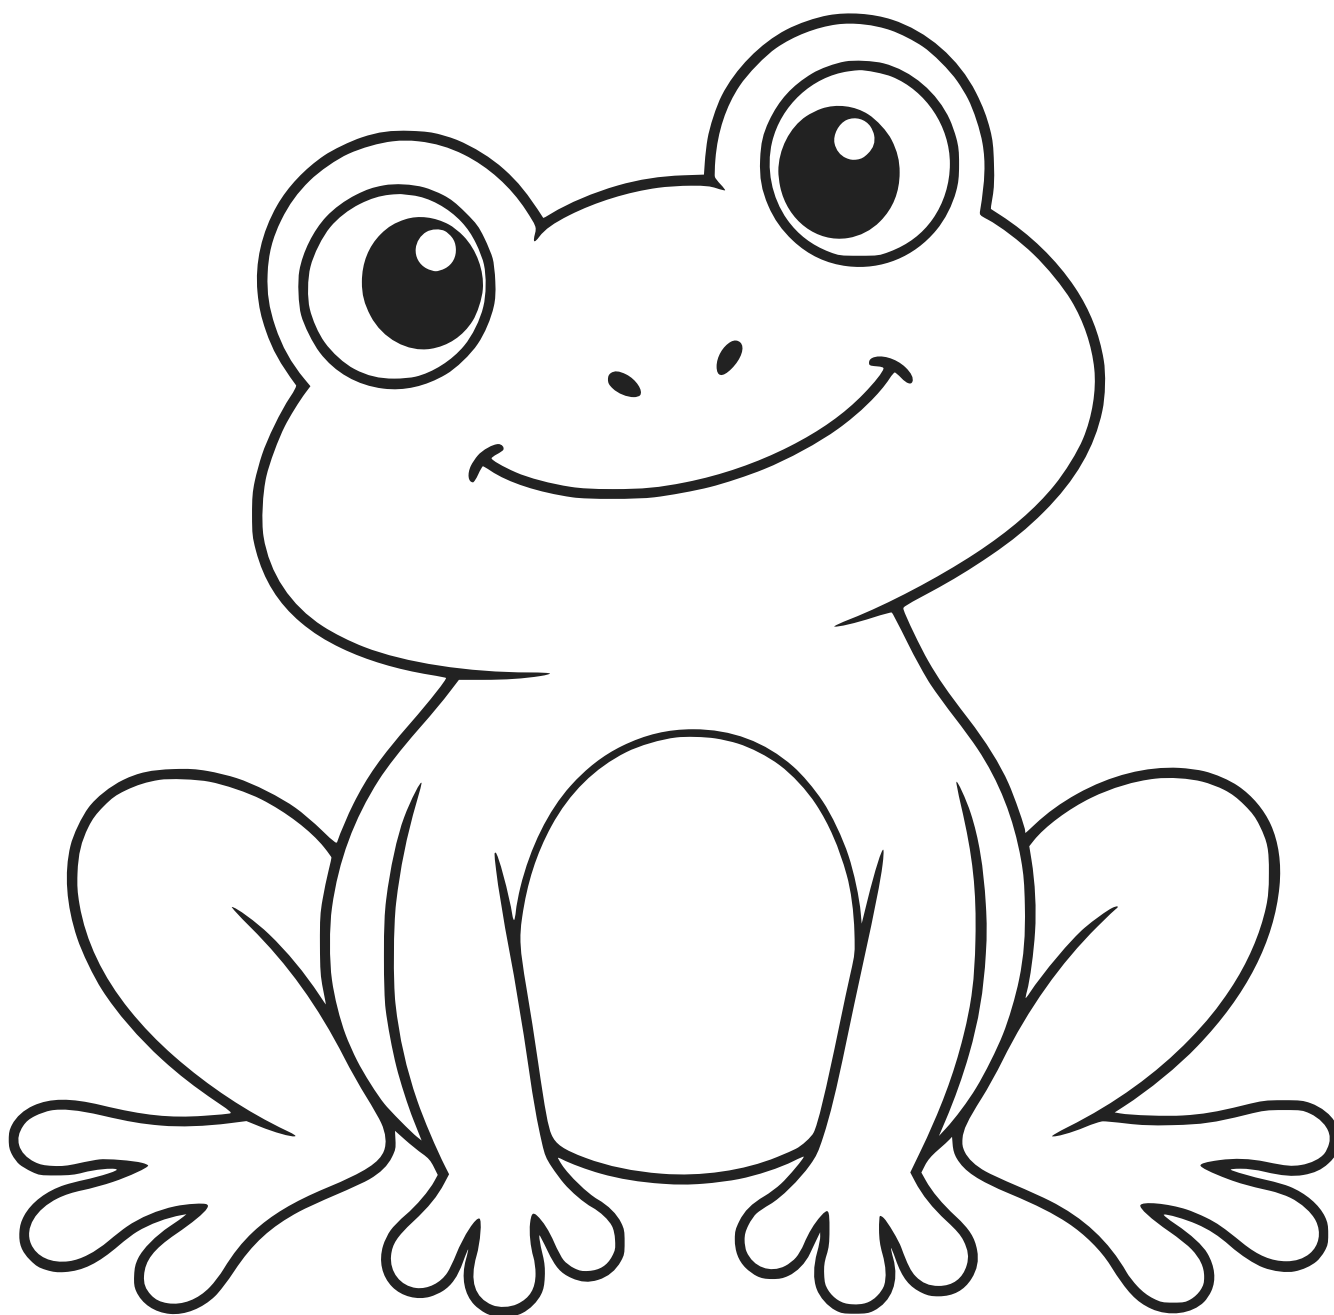

Draw the broad smile and its short rounded corner marks.

Try this fix: Keep all four limbs attached. The front hands sit between the broad back feet; the eye rims follow the head tilt.

Make it yours: Try a smaller smile or a different green palette after you have copied the same pose.
