DRAW A LITTLE. MAKE IT YOURS.

Books and a quiet teacup

Moderate | Recognizable book spines, page blocks and a small still life

Dark lines are new. Gray lines were drawn in an earlier stage.

STEP 1

STEP 2

STEP 3

STEP 4

STEP 5

STEP 6

STEP 7

STEP 8

1. Draw the lower book with a gently rounded spine on the left and a straight right edge.
2. Add a slightly shorter book above it, this time with its rounded spine on the right.
3. Draw a small cup resting on the top book. Erase the book edge hidden behind the cup.
4. Add a narrow oval rim and an open handle attached to the cup side.
5. Draw a small tapered pot beside the books, with a narrow rim.
6. Grow a short stem from the pot and attach three small pointed leaves.
7. Add inset page blocks and short page lines. Keep the lines away from the rounded spines.
8. Add two steam curls above the cup and one small heart on its front.

Try this fix: Keep each book wider than the cup. Page lines belong between the covers, and the little plant should not reach above the steam.

Trace once

Copy it

Change one feature

Books and a quiet teacup

Choose your own palette. The large spaces are yours to fill.